PALAZZO ROMA

Via del Corso 337, Rome

This majestically restored 17th century palazzo was once the home of a noble Tuscan family and it feels even more luxurious now. Situated near the Spanish Steps, between Via del Corso and Piazza di Pietra, the property—a member of the Shedir Collection—is adorned with coffered ceilings, frescoes, gorgeous artworks, and an original marble staircase. All 39 rooms and suites have been uniquely designed to the highest standards of contemporary luxury while maintaining their original features.
