New hotels to discover in 2024

From island resorts to historical properties and wilderness retreats, check out (and into) these recent or upcoming additions to the global hotel scene.

Beach bliss: Caribbean beach resorts don't come more remote or peaceful than Casa Chablé, said Tatler. This new addition to Mexico's Chablé hotel group sits beside a stretch of "powdery" white sand in the vast and wondrous Sian Ka'an Biosphere Reserve, a 35-minute speedboat ride from the town of Tulum. It's a wonderful place to just relax but there is also plenty to do, including birdwatching, snorkelling and fishing. chablehotels.com.
